Visitors, please feel free to participate in any of our listed activities!

Today, we are pleased to welcome Mollye Barrett into church membership.

Communion Offering this morning goes to Project Focal Point.

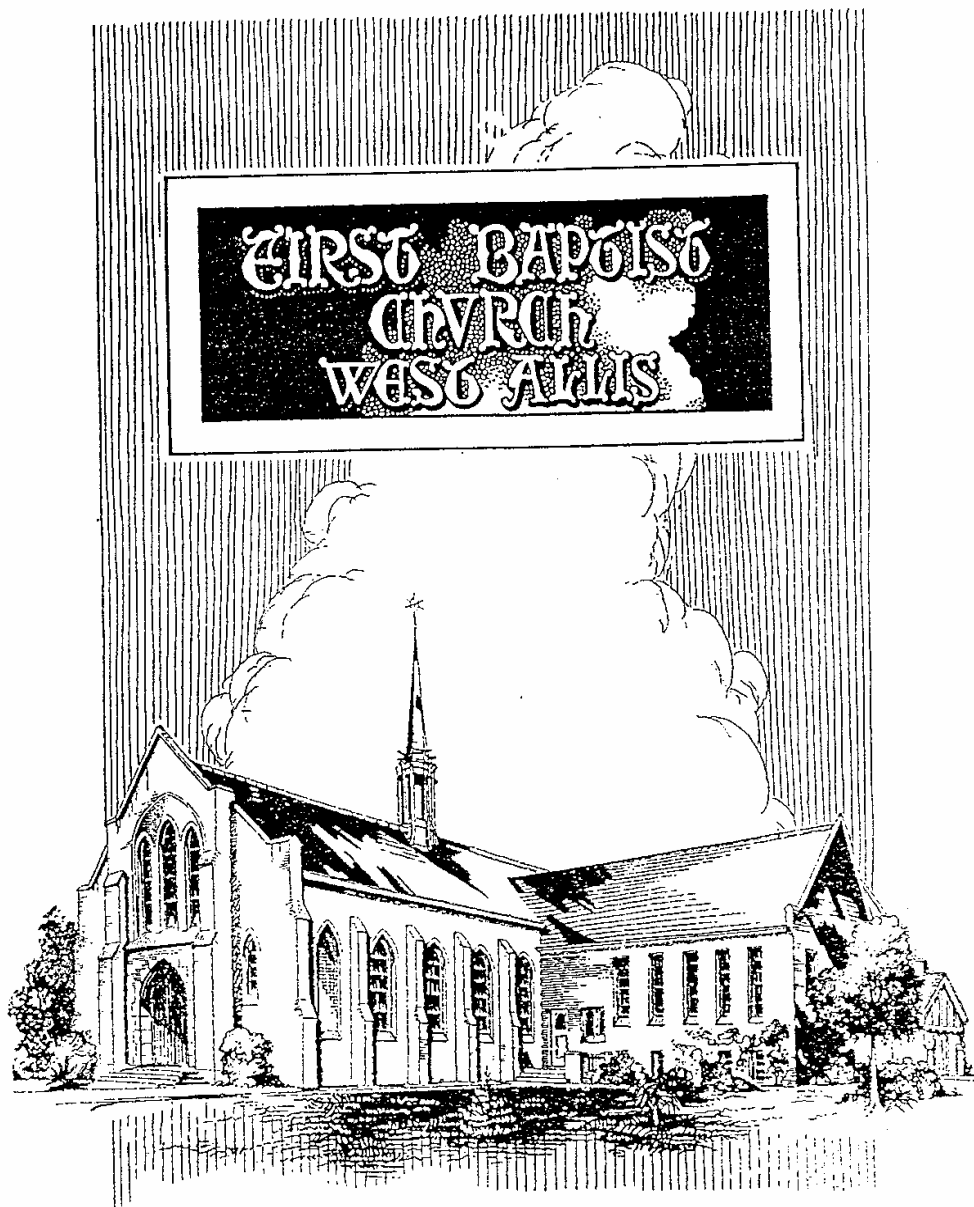

We have reason to rejoice and celebrate today! On June 2, 1929, 75 years ago, the handsome sanctuary in which we worship was dedicated. On June 6, 1954, 50 years ago, the stained glass windows were dedicated. Truly, we worship in the beauty of Holiness.

West Allis Retired Men will meet at our church on Thursday, June 10, 9:00 AM for breakfast. Speaker is Robert Schrap telling the group about “Pipes and Pipe Collecting”. All retired men are invited.

Camp Tamarack Scholarships are available from the Board of Christian Education for all youth attending camp. See Becky Holl for more info.

Be sure to check the bulletin board by the Education Wing entrance for pictures of the first phase construction of the new Youth Center at Camp Tamarack. Dedication is June 19th.

Fiction Fellowship will be reading Empire Falls over the summer and will review it in Sept. This novel cements Russo's reputation as one of America's most compelling and compassionate storytellers. Pick up a copy for a good summer read and join us for a lively discussion.

Program of the Dedicatory Services

June 2, 1929

These are the same hymns and responsive reading used in the dedication service of our sanctuary on June 2, 1929. The hymnal our congregation was using at that time was The New Baptist Hymnal published in 1926 by the American Baptist Publication Society. Let us thank God for 75 years of worship in this beautiful facility.

Hymn 104 “O Worship The King”

Responsive Reading Selection 2 from The New Baptist Hymnal..

How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!

My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord:

My heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young,

Even thine altar, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God!

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee.

Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them.

They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob.

Behold, O God our Shield! And look upon the face of thine Anointed.

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For the Lord God is a Sun and Shield.

O Lord of hosts! Blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

Hymn 634

“More Love to Thee”
